Many times temptation grows so strong and makes someone go blind to what is wrong
Well stop right now while there's still the strength to see
Turn your eyes, and run away from me

Stay Out of my arms
Take me advice it's easy to break
The same heart twice
Let's stop the hurt before it starts
Don't follow me, Stay Out of My Arms

I'm sure you'll find someone to have and hold
And keep the promises you were told
I'd only lead you on and let you down
And hurt you when good memories can't be found

Stay Out of my arms
Take me advice it's easy to break
The same heart twice
Let's stop the hurt before it starts
Don't follow me, Stay Out of My Arms
